10. Property is not wholly owned if the extent of share drag also be factored in. The purpose of each of the terms 'lease' would mean a lease of land not only from year to year or for any term exceeding one year of ownership. When, however, the lease of immovable property is obtained from a person in an official position with the employee, such a lease should be treated irrespective of term of lease whether it is short term or long term as a lease of the property of rent.

- 11. (a) should be deleted.
- (b) If the property has been acquired by purchase, mortgage, lease, gift or otherwise, the value of the property should be taken as the value of the property at the time of acquisition.
- (c) If the property has been acquired by lease, the total amount of rent received from the property should be taken as the value of the property.
- (d) If the property has been acquired by gift or otherwise, the value of the property should be taken as the value of the property at the time of acquisition.

12. The annual return in respect of immovable property may also be taken as the value of the property.

13. The value of the property, including the value of the property in which the property is situated, should be taken as the value of the property.

14. The value of the property, including the value of the property in which the property is situated, should be taken as the value of the property.
