12. The Plaintiff has a large user base and it earns revenue through subscriptions. The Plaintiff contends that it owns the broadcast reproduction rights in the broadcasts made on its online platform and the same is entitled to protection under Section 37 of the Copyright Act, 1957.

13. It is the case of the Plaintiff that recently in March 2022 it came across a large number of websites and mobile applications which were illegally re-broadcasting, re-communicating, and telecasting the live streaming of the cricketing events in which the exclusive broadcasting rights belong to the Plaintiff as per the agreements. The Plaintiff has been able to garner evidence during the recent Bangladesh tour of West Indies, Netherlands tour of England, and England tour of West Indies to show how all of the Defendant web portals and mobile applications are illegally broadcasting and violating the Plaintiff's broadcast reproduction rights. The screenshots of websites and mobile applications of Defendant Nos.1-26 streaming the content in which the Plaintiff is the exclusive owner of the broadcast reproduction rights for the territory of India have been placed on record. 14. The case of the Plaintiff is that since the content on all these websites is predominantly illegal and unlawful, the Plaintiff is entitled to orders blocking the said websites and mobile applications.

15. Ms. Majumdar, Id. Counsel for the Plaintiff submits that in a majority of these websites, the Plaintiff is unable to even obtain information as to who are the registrants of these websites as the said information is privacy protected. The Domain Names Registrars (DNRs) of all these websites are arrayed as Defendant Nos. 28 to 39. Defendant Nos. 40 to 48 are internet service providers (ISPs) through whom blocking orders are to be implemented. Defendant No. 49 is the Department of Telecommunications (hereinafter 'DoT') which issues website blocking orders.

16. It is submitted by Ms. Majumdar, Id. Counsel, that since telecast and broadcast of cricketing events is a continuous process, more and more websites are likely to come up during the currency of the cricketing events covered by the agreements. Moreover, these websites are able to move the streaming of infringing content in a very short period to a mirror website even if the main website and URL is blocked. Thus, it is prayed that a dynamic injunction be granted restraining any further websites from coming up which are mirror websites of the rogue websites so that they can also be blocked.

17. The Court has perused the plaint and documents on record. A perusal of the same shows that, in the plaint itself, various screenshots have been put to establish how in various cricket tours including the ongoing Bangladesh and West Indies series, the websites and mobile applications arrayed as Defendant Nos.1 to 26 are indulging in illegal broadcast. Defendant No. 27 is a John Doe party whose name is yet to be identified and as the events progress, there is a possibility of more websites streaming infringing content coming up. Since a large number of sporting events are likely to be held over the currency of the present calendar year, an ex parte ad interim injunction deserves to be granted in order to ensure that the investment made by the Plaintiff in acquiring broadcasting rights to these events is not jeopardized in any manner. The Plaintiff has made out a prima facie case for grant of an injunction against all these rogue websites and mobile applications for blocking orders to be issued. If the interim injunction is not granted at this stage, irreparable injury would be caused to the Plaintiff. Balance of convenience lies in the favor of the Plaintiff. Accordingly, the following directions are issued:

- i) All the websites arrayed as Defendant Nos.1 to 23 and mobile applications arrayed as Defendant No. 24 to 26 are restrained from telecasting, broadcasting, streaming or in any manner making available to the public any of the events covered by the agreements extracted in paragraph 10 above, including the upcoming events as listed in paragraph 11.
- ii) Defendant No.49 i.e., DoT is directed to issue blocking orders against the following websites:

- www.crichd.com;
- www.crichd.live;

  - www.aostv.asia
- iii) The said blocking orders shall be issued by the DoT within 24 hours after service of this order. Pursuant to the said blocking order/s, all the ISPs i.e., Defendant Nos. 40 to 48 shall block access to the URLs as also the mobile applications / APKs within 24 hours and shall not permit downloading of these apps or streaming of these websites.
- iv) The DNRs being Defendant Nos. 28 to 39 shall reveal the names of all the registrants of the websites mentioned in paragraph number 13 as also any other information including their mobile numbers, subscription information, bank account, credit card or any other details which they may have.

18. During the currency of these events covered by the Plaintiffs' agreements, if the Plaintiffs discover other mirror websites or rogue websites which are broadcasting and telecasting the sporting events which are covered by the present suit, they may:

- i) File an affidavit in this regard before this Court along with evidence thereof. The said websites shall stand blocked with immediate effect, upon notice being issued by the Plaintiffs to the DoT and ISPs that such an affidavit has already been filed before this Court.
- ii) Upon DoT receiving the notices and communications from the Plaintiffs that the affidavits have been filed before the Court, the orders for blocking such further rogue websites shall be passed, immediately and in any case, within 24 hours, so that the websites do not continue to stream infringing content in any manner whatsoever.

19. Compliance of Order XXXIX Rule 3 CPC be made by e-mail within one week considering the large number of parties in the present suit.
20. Reply to the application be filed within four weeks from the date of service of the present order. Rejoinder be filed within four weeks, thereafter.
21. List the application for hearing on 12th October, 2022.
