Office Memorandum

Subject: - Requirement of Equipment Type Approval (ETA) for the wireless equipment, exempted from licensing requirement in different frequency band(s)-reg.

A number of representations have been received in this Ministry seeking clarification on requirement of ETA for various wireless equipments/products/devices which have been exempted from licensing requirement in different frequency band(s) and if these are manufactured in India.

In this regard, it is clarified that as per existing regulations, ETA is required for use of above mentioned wireless equipments/ products / devices manufactured in India, to ensure compliance with technical specification(s), as notified in the relevant Gazette notifications
