Subject : Inclusion of SATCOM Equipment in Aero Mobile (Aircraft Station)
Licence.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to requests from many Airlines within the country, for inclusion of SATCOM equipment, in the list of mandatory communication equipments in the Aero Mobile Station (Aircraft Station) License, for security, safety, and internal administration purposes.

2. It has been decided by the Competent Authority to permit inclusion of SATCOM equipment, in the Aero Mobile Station (Aircraft Station) licences as a mandatory equipment, for captive use viz. for navigational and control purposes, security, safety, and internal administration purposes only. These SATCOM equipment should operate in INMARSAT based satellite networks and fulfilling other conditions as indicated in the Aero Mobile Station (Aircraft Station) Licences. Such permission is granted for Aircrafts like Boeing B777 & Airbus A330 and other similar types of wide-body Aircrafts, involving flight on international routes with Extended Range Operations (ETOPS) beyond 180 minutes being a mandatory requirement. For this purpose, an undertaking in the enclosed proforma may be obtained from the concerned airlines, before granting licence.

Encl : as above.
